

Transport problems

In the modern world getting from A to B shouldn't be a problem when there are so many transport methods available, and when B is only a short distance away from A. Don't bet on it however.

If I gaun tae Edinburgh,
should I go by bus?
I wuid, but they're aye runnin late,      (Repeat last two lines of each verse.)
an that means ower much fuss.

If I gaun tae Edinburgh,
should I go by train?
The trains aye cost a fortune
an they're better left alane,

If I gain tae Edinburgh,
should I go by car?
Naw, there ye're stuck in traffic jams afore ye get thar far.

If I gaun tae Edinburgh,
should I go by bike?
Naw, I doot that exercise
is harder than I'd like.

Tae spend the day in Edinburgh
was ma initial aim,
but transport seems that difficult,
I'll juist bide here at hame.
